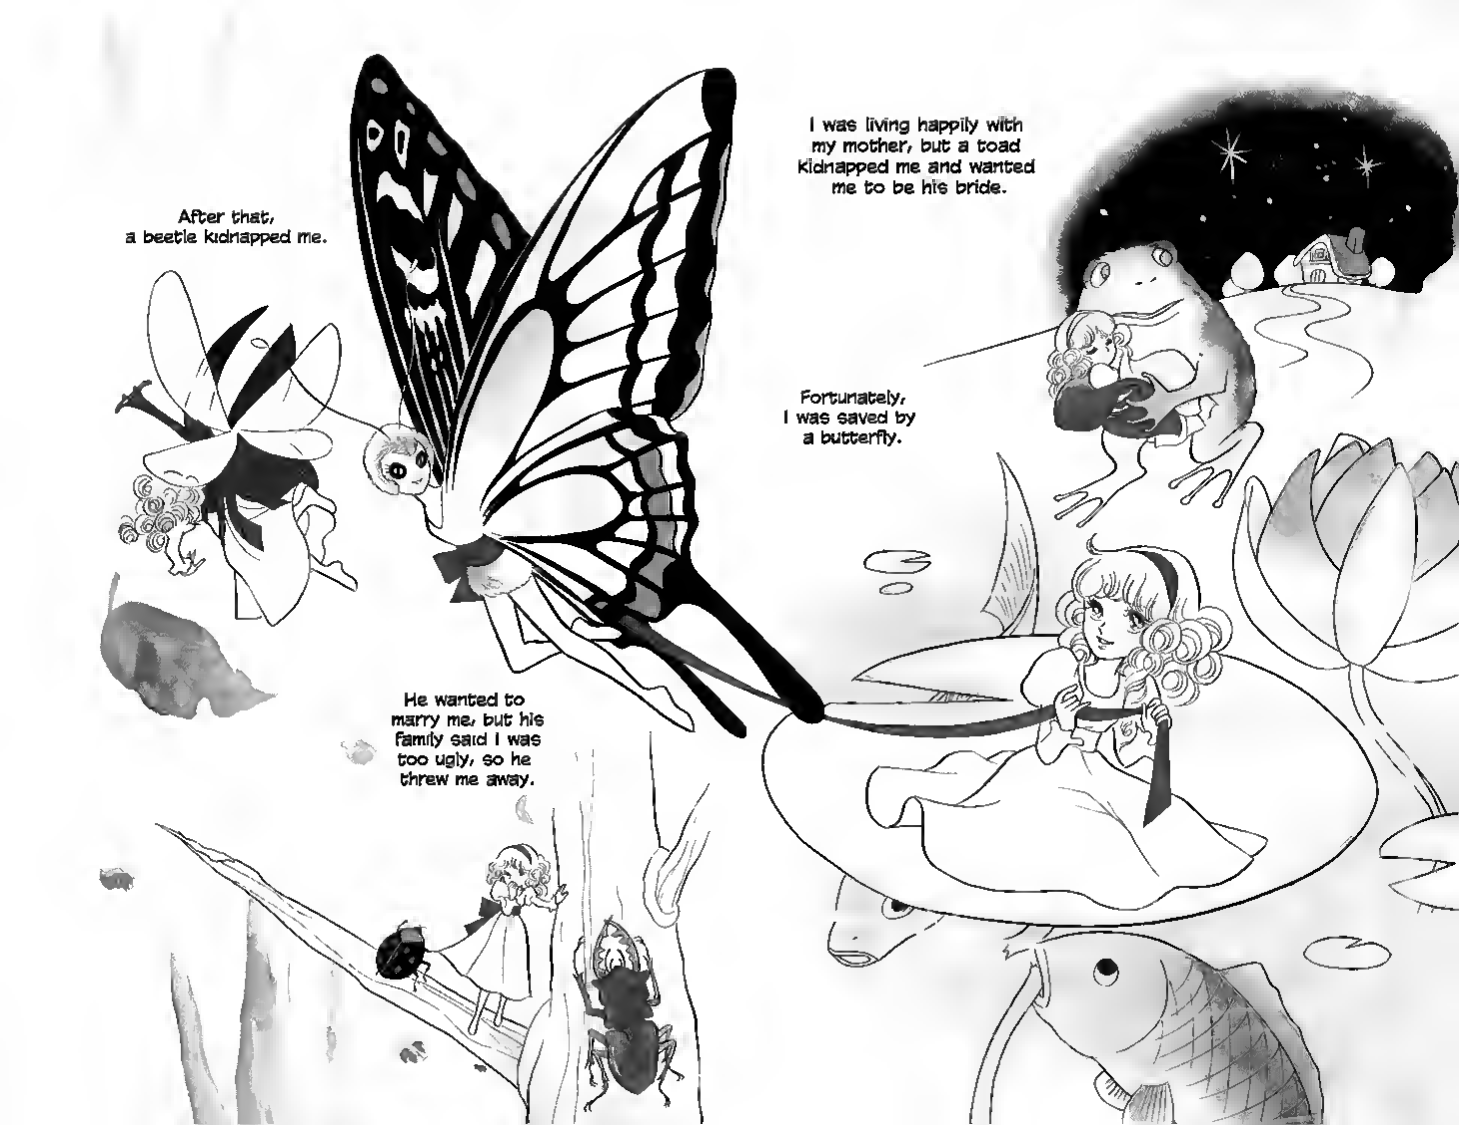
THUMBELINA BY ANDERSEN
YES, YOU ARE RIGHT EVERY-ONE KNOWS MY STORY
I WAS BORN FROM A TULIP



I was living happily with my mother, but a toad kidnapped me and wanted me to be his bride.
Fortunately, I was saved by a butterfly.
After that, a beetle kidnapped me.
He wanted to marry me, but his family said I was too ugly, so he threw me away.

I was abandoned in a field during winter. I almost froze to death.
Then, I was saved by a field mouse.
Hatae, her neighbour the old blind mole, fell in love with me and asked for my hand in marriage.

A kind-hearted swallow saved me and brought me to a flower garden in the South.
Then, I met the handsome king of the fairies and he asked me to be his bride.
We married and we lived happily ever after.
